

The Kentucky Rifle Association

APPLICATION GUIDELINES

Sponsoring and Endorsing an Applicant

When considering a candidate for membership in The Kentucky Rifle Association the sponsor and endorser are urged to reacquaint themselves with the Association's purpose and objectives, which are outlined in this document. You should review the by-laws in your KRA Membership Directory, which contain pertinent information relative to sponsoring new membership. You should inform the prospective applicant of our purposes and objectives, and be sure that they are understood by the applicant. This should be done before you ever sign an application. The Association does not look favorably on an applicant whose primary interest is financial gain. If a "grey" area exists with a particular individual, discuss it with the Membership Chairman prior to submitting the application to avoid needless effort and possible embarrassment for the KRA .

Who May Sponsor and Endorse an Applicant

Officers and Directors may endorse but not sponsor an applicant . Our By-Laws indicate that other KRA members, in good standing for at least three years, may sponsor or endorse a candidate by signing a Membership Application Form.

Who May Apply for Membership

All candidates must be 18 years of age or older, without a criminal record. Any applicant that has been asked to apply by a sponsor and has a willing endorser may apply . After no less than one-year has lapsed from the date of a rejection notification for admission, any candidate may submit a new membership application.

Applicant's Interest in Collecting

Our membership consists of collectors and students of Antique Kentucky rifles, pistols, and accouterments. We ARE NOT a black powder-shooting club, nor are we an organization for those whose primary interest is the recreation of the Kentucky rifle.

Applicants are not discouraged from their co-interest in contemporary arms, but are not qualified for membership by their sole interest in contemporary arms.

We are primarily a collector corporation for antique Kentucky rifles, pistols, and accouterments. However, we consider for membership students who, over reasonable periods, have demonstrated serious intent in research, and whose studies have led them to new insight into our distinctive Kentucky rifle heritage and history.

Application Procedure

Membership in the Kentucky Rifle Association is by invitation only. As previously noted, only an eligible member of the Association who is a member in good standing for at least 3 years (Not an Officer or Director) must initiate the application process. The forms are available from the Membership Chairman, who is the Vice President of our Association, from the Administrative Assistant, or at our web site. The forms must be fully completed by the applicant, and reviewed, acknowledged and signed by the applicant's sponsor and endorser. The sponsor shall then forward the application with two Letters of Introduction, his and the endorser's, to the Membership Chairman for review. (These must include comprehensive written comments about the applicant.)

The candidate's application is reviewed by the Membership Chairman and then presented to the Board of Director's for action. If the Membership Committee has any questions or concerns about the applicant or their interest, their name will not be tacitly approved until those questions have been answered. When the Board approves the application, the Newsletter Editor will then be instructed to print the name of the prospective member in the next Newsletter for any comments by the membership at large. If no adverse comments are received within 30 days after the candidate's name has been circulated via the Newsletter, the Membership Chairman will send the prospective member an invitation to join our Association. Potential members, thus invited to join, have 30 days to accept by forwarding all applicable fees to the Administrative Assistant within a reasonable period or the invitation is considered withdrawn. The applicant must then wait one year to re-apply.

Sponsor and Endorser Responsibilities

- Both the Sponsor and Endorser are obligated to know the applicant.
- Review the purposes and objectives of the KRA and the Application with the proposed applicant.
- Be fully knowledgeable of and review the proposed applicant's collection and collecting interest.
- Mutually discuss the applicant and be free of conflicts of interest with the KRA's guidelines.
- Discuss the proposed applicant with the Membership Chairman (listed in the Membership Directory or on the cover of the Newsletter) if you have doubt about the applicant meeting qualifications.
- Provide accurate and comprehensive information about the applicant in the Letter of Introduction.
- Be sure all application documents are complete before submitting them to the Membership Chairman.

Conclusion

Our Annual Meeting is a much anticipated occasion for the display and discussion of newly-discovered antique Kentucky rifles, pistols, and /or accouterments. We look forward to becoming acquainted with fine examples that have long been in collections which are seldom available for specific comparison.

Regular annual attendance and display of arms is expected of our members. Two of the outstanding benefits of membership is the opportunity for sharing of fellowship and knowledge with kindred enthusiasts at the Annual Meeting or other informal gatherings and the satisfaction of Fair and Honorable Trade Practices.

Sponsors and endorsers are OBLIGATED TO KNOW the applicant, and must accept full responsibility for recommending only qualified candidates. Only with a full understanding of the adherence to the above guidelines will we continue to maintain our status as one of the finest organizations of its type in the world.

Send only the application and coversheet to the applicant for completion

Please request that the applicant describe their interest in a personal typewritten letter on the back of, or attached to his or her form, titled, "Letter of Introduction."
